

Cultural Awareness Training

As the demographics of Tasmania change, so does our need to be able to work effectively with people from diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds.

This 3 hour workshop will provide you with the opportunity to:

- understand the broad concepts of 'culture' and cultural awareness
- improve knowledge regarding migration to Australia and Tasmania
- increase awareness about the migration experience
- increase understanding of the settlement process in Tasmania
- understand and develop cross-cultural communication skills
- improve knowledge regarding the Migrant Resource Centre and Phoenix Centre services

Who should attend?

Suitable for any person, relevant to anyone interested in working with people from migrant backgrounds.

For more information or to register interest in attending this training, contact training@mrchobart.org.au

Funded by the Australian Government Department of Health under the name Programme of Assistance for Survivors of Torture and Trauma, by the Department of Human Services and by the Department of Social Services. Visit www.dss.gov.au for more information.

Venue

KGV Sports & Community Centre, Glenorchy

NOTE

This training must be completed prior to attending 'Working with People from a Refugee Background' or 'Working with Young People from a Migrant Background'